"It all pulls together in a climax of such all-out intensity that you'll be left gape-mouthed, the dancers pushing themselves to whole new heights of speed and athleticism just when you think they should be collapsing." —Janet Smith, Georgia Straight

SØLVI EDVARDSEN

MAN

January 11–12, 2019, 8 PM

Sir James Dunn Theatre

$30 Adults; $25 Seniors; $20 Students (General Seating)

A profoundly human solo—created by Sølvi Edvardsen for the extraordinary South Asian dancer Sudesh Adhana—Man plants its feet in two unique cultures. Edvardsen came from Norway looking for inspiration in the form of Indian Dance...Adhana (from India) was doing the opposite. The result is a simple, provocative meshing of two diverse worlds—an exploration of "man" with regards to both masculinity and humanity in general. With one simple prop and one amazing dancer, Man delivers images that will last a lifetime.

"Sudesh Adana... is remarkable, portraying the softer qualities of man using only a small sitting stool as his partner." —Stephen White, Victoria Dance Series
